

Commitment

The Creche and Kindergarten Association Ltd (C&K) is committed to protecting the privacy of all people with whom we communicate. C&K will collect, use, share and store only the personal information that is reasonably necessary to carry out our functions and activities, and will be bound by the Australian Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cth) (NVETR Act).

What personal information we collect

C&K collects and uses 'personal information' (as defined in the Privacy Act):

Personal information:

- information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable
- can be true or false, verbal, written or photographic
- can be recorded or unrecorded
- includes a person's name, address, contact details, social media platform username, date of birth and gender

Sensitive information (a subset of personal information) includes information about a person's:

- race or ethnic origin
- political opinions and memberships
- religious beliefs
- membership of a trade union or professional association
- sexual preferences or practices
- criminal record
- health information, including genetic, biometric, physical and mental health, disability and use of health services.

Why do we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information

We collect, hold, use and disclose personal information to achieve Our Purpose to:

- Provide you and your children with the highest standard of early childhood education and care services
- Operate the C&K College of Early Childhood (College) and provide training to educators in the early childhood education and care sector
- Advocate for children and the early childhood education and care sector
- Run our business
- Carry out other functions and purposes necessary or incidental to achieve Our Purpose.

In order to achieve Our Purpose we use and disclose personal information to:

- Set fees, improve our centres and meet our obligations under funding arrangements
- Share information about children's activities through portfolios and online portals
- Communicate with you via letters, emails, SMS, online portals, electronic sign in/out, surveys and other communication channels
- Undertake or participate in early childhood education and care research projects with families, children and partners
- Develop our curriculum and educator training programs
- Promote and market C&K, including using social media
- Recruit appropriately qualified staff members
- Comply with our legal obligations, including making disclosures required or authorized by law, a court or tribunal, and government authorities
- Manage complaints and internal reviews and investigations
- Manage our risks
- Develop C&K's business and products
- Communicate with service providers to provide our services to you (including, for example, our website server hosts and our insurance providers)
- Submit Australian VET Management Information Statistical Standard compliant data to the National VET Provider Collection in accordance with the NVETR Act
- Develop and improve the College's activities
- Identify potential employees from students studying at the College.

How we collect your personal information

We try to only collect the personal information we need to achieve Our Purpose. The main way we collect information about you is when you give it to us. What information we collect and how we collect it is set out in the table attached to this Policy.

We will notify you when we are collecting your personal information. We will obtain your express consent to collecting sensitive information. If you don't want us to use your information you can tell us at the time it is collected or as soon as possible afterwards.

If you do not want C&K to collect and use your personal information we may not be able to provide services to or assist you.

How we disclose your personal information

We will not use or disclose personal information for any other reason except to achieve Our Purpose and undertake our activities unless:

- you have consented
- you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose the information for another purpose which is directly related to Our Purpose or
- we are required or authorised by law and/or under the Privacy Act.

How we store and protect your personal information

Most of the information we hold about you will be stored electronically. We take reasonable steps to protect your personal information as far as practicable by:

- storing information on secure servers or locations accessible only to persons authorised by C&K
- all employees regularly completing privacy training
- appropriately destroying personal information no longer required
- conducting internal assessments to determine privacy requirements and compliance with our security measures
- requiring our service providers to only use or disclose the information for the purpose of the service.

Unfortunately, no electronic system is guaranteed to be 100% secure. If a data breach occurs we will take the necessary steps under the Privacy Act to mitigate the risk of damage and, as required, notify you and the Privacy Commissioner.

Overseas data storage

Some of the service providers that we use to run our business may store data in the United States of America and other overseas countries including the EU, Ireland, Switzerland, Canada, Germany, Singapore and New Zealand. C&K takes all reasonable steps to protect your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act, including:

- assessing if the service provider is subject to a privacy regime that offers similar protection to Australia
- entering into contractual arrangements that require appropriate standards of privacy
- seeking the consent of individuals prior to transferring the information or
- as is otherwise permitted by law.

How to access or correct your personal information

You have the right to:

- access the personal information we hold about you and
- ask that we correct that information.

To do so please contact our Privacy Officer (privacy@candk.asn.au). We will respond to your request within 30 days unless there is a lawful reason for not doing so.

We may ask you to verify your identity before we give you access to your personal information or correct that information.

How to make a complaint

If you believe that C&K has breached your privacy please contact C&K's Privacy Officer:

Email: privacy@candk.asn.au
Post: C&K Privacy Officer
257 Gympie Road
Kedron QLD 4031

The Privacy Officer will:

- acknowledge your complaint within five business days
- Investigate your complaint
- endeavour to respond to you with the outcome of the investigation within 30 business days.

If you make an anonymous complaint we may not be able to properly investigate or respond to it.

When we review your complaint, we may need to contact the people you name and disclose to them your identity and the nature of your complaint. If you do not wish C&K to do so please let us know. However, this may limit our ability to properly investigate and resolve your complaint.

If you are dissatisfied with C&K's response or believe your complaint remains unresolved, you may take your complaint to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner. The contact details for the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner can be found via its website located at <https://www.oaic.gov.au>.

Amending this policy

We may change this policy at any time without prior notice. When we do make changes, we will notify you of them by posting an updated version of the policy on our website.
