Wallaville Kindy is a not-for-profit community based centre that has been educating and caring for children in the district for over 42 years. We are a small community run service, affiliated with C&K—Queensland's largest and longest established provider of community based early childhood education. We use a play based curriculum underpinned by the Early Years Learning Framework. Our centre offers both Limited Hours Occasional Care and Kindergarten programs, run by qualified and professionally trained staff.

*Pre-prep aged children with family health care card, or who are of Aboriginal decent may be eligible for subsidy.
